Presidente:

The lower half of the page is dominated by several large, overlapping handwritten signatures and scribbles. The most prominent signature is at the top, written over the date, and appears to be 'Solon Amaral'. Below it, there are several other signatures, some of which are very large and circular, and others that are more linear and elongated. The scribbles are dense and cover a significant portion of the page, obscuring any text that might have been there.
